CAMS LOWERS AGE

CAMS licence holders are now able to compete in Supersprint events in NSW from 14years.

CAMS is pleased to announce that after discussions with NSW Government, change has been made regarding the age of juniors permitted to participate in Supersprints.

NSW is the only state in Australia which currently has legislation (Motor Vehicle Sports (Public Safety) Act 1985) which governs age limits in motor sport in NSW.

The move is well received by CAMS and it's expected this will assist in the participation and development of juniors, in the state which has the largest amount of licence holders.

The move brings the age limits in line with the rest of Australia and NSW in terms of Hillclimb & Lap Dashes/Sprints.

The current and new approved classes are as follows:

Hillclimb	14 - 16 years
Off Road / Short Course	14 - 16 years
Rallysprints	14 - 16 years
Supersprints	14 - 16 years
Officials	16 years

FOUR CARS FINISH 2014 KKR RALLY

50 cars started the 2014 Kidney Kar Rally that raises funds for children suffering from kidney disease.

Four teams with Bathurst Light Car Club members competed, started and finished. Mark and Sue Hammond (Ford Falcon) were 6th, David Hogbin and Adam Julian (Commodore Ute) 11th.

The hard luck stories go to Alex Mueller and Tony Wise (Commodore) who damaged a diff in the first stage, returned to Bathurst effected repairs and re-joined several days later while Wayne Ames, Haydn Sanders and Tony Roberts (Ford Fairlane) missed several sections with problems, the Holden finished one place ahead of the Ford.

PHILLIP ISLAND WEEKEND

BLCC member Tony King recently competed in the Victorian Six Hour Regularity Relay held at the Phillip Island Grand Prix Circuit on the weekend of 3 & 4 August 2014. A bitter, southerly gale lashed the circuit on Saturday morning, with hail and rain falling as the first session lined up for practice. Anyone that's been to Phillip Island in mid-winter will know the feeling!

Sunday morning was a complete contrast thankfully, as the day was bright, sunny and cool; ideal for motorsport! Forty nine teams faced the starter, with each team made up of between four and six cars. Tony was part of a four car team representing the MX5 Club of NSW; Tony's team finished the weekend just out of the top ten in 11th position.
